QUALITY MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS FOUNDATION TRAINING COURSE*

(1 day)

Objective

This intensive 1-day course is certified by the International Register of Certificated Auditors (IRCA) Registration Governing Board and satisfies part of the formal training requirement for QMS Auditor certification (IRCA Cert. No. 17917).

A certificate of attainment for attending both the IRCA QMS Foundation course (IRCA9151) together with the QMS Internal Auditor course (IRCA9152) will be recognized by RABQSA as equivalent to their QMS Internal Auditor course (TCD24)

The successful delegate will understand the ISO 9000 family requirements, its underlying philosophy and principles, and concepts.

The course examines this series by opening with a discussion about Quality Management Systems. This is followed by discussions on:

- Benefits to organizations using ISO 9001:2015
- Quality Management Process Model
- Quality Management Principles
- ISO 9000 family - Purpose and Structure
- ISO 9001:2015 components

Persons who should attend this course include:

- Those responsible for managing their current Quality Management Systems
- Individuals designing and implementing new Quality Management Systems
- Persons who may be training others in the disciplines of the ISO 9000 family
- Persons wishing to pursue IRCA QMS auditor certification

3 Workshops

Overview

This 1-day QMS Foundation Training Course offered by Ashbrooke has been developed to support the delegate's desire to understand the process-based approach to management systems using ISO 9001:2015.

This course examines these issues, identifies areas Quality Management Systems must review to ensure conformance, and assists Quality Management Systems during their development. Further, this course explores the process-based approach to management systems using the quality management process model.

This course contains three workshops designed to examine and explore the seven Quality Management Principles and the new ISO 9001:2015 Standard
